

River Poetry

Do you have a favourite river you could write about?

Maybe it's just down the road from you or perhaps it is across the other side of the world...

How about an acrostic poem like below?
Or just write free-style!

Use some adjectives to describe your river and bring it to life with your words

Tidal up to Gunnislake

Alive with boats as it reaches the sea

Moves along the Cornish border

Almost a kilometre long

Rest a while on its banks
