

Keybridge Weir Photo Record

Pre-works/Baseline Photos

Photo 1: View of structure looking upstream from right hand bank in high flows

Photo 2: View of structure looking upstream from central channel in low flows

Keybridge Weir Photo Record

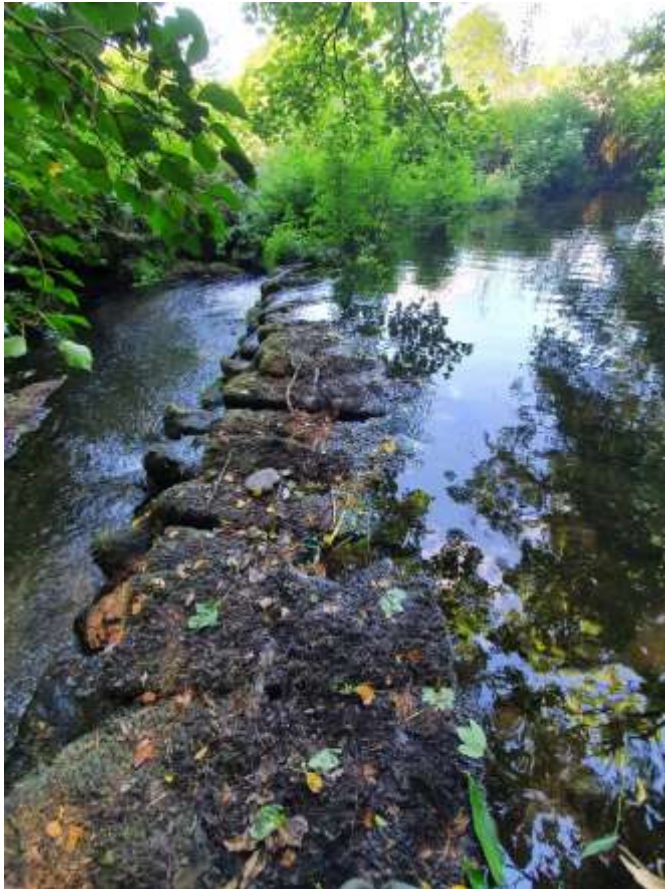

Photo 3: View of the crest of the weir from left hand bank

Photo 4: View of large metal staples pinned into and securing the crest boulders in position. Each staple is approximately 300mm long

Keybridge Weir Photo Record

Photo 5: Approximately 15m of both the upstream and downstream banks of the structure are protected with stonework

Photo 6: View of downstream habitat in low flows from central river channel

Keybridge Weir Photo Record

Photo 7: View of upstream habitat in low flows from central river channel